

ISAAC GETZ

Official Biography

Isaac Getz is a professor at the top-ranked ESCP Business School and formerly a visiting professor at Cornell and Stanford.

Isaac studied over 300 companies in 30 countries and wrote on topics of leadership, corporate transformation, freedom- and responsibility- based culture, and the altruistic corporation.

He is the co-author with Brian Carney of the award-winning international best-seller Freedom, Inc., translated to a dozen of languages and co-author with Bob Davids and Brian Carney of Leadership without Ego. His last book The Altruistic Corporation has been co-published with Laurent Marbacher.

International speaker Isaac gave speeches for hundreds of companies, organizations, and forums on four continents, including Peter Drucker Global Forum in Vienna.

A study by The French National Foundation for the Management and Business Education on the world 50 most influential living management thinkers ranked Isaac at N°4. Also in France, LinkedIn ranked Isaac in their Top 25 Voices in 2019.

Thinkers50 have shortlisted Isaac's work on corporate liberation and on the altruistic corporation for its 2019 Breakthrough Idea Award.